Wheeler hired as finance director

John Wheeler joined Chinook Winds Casino Resort in late September and hit the ground running! He is a graduate of the University of Puget Sound and has been in accounting and budgeting since 1970 and in Tribal gaming for 12 years.

He has worked in governmental accounting as well as in distribution, manufacturing and retail industries. His first job was as a military pay technician in the Air Force.

His interests include boating, photography and road trips.

When asked why he was interested in moving to Oregon and specifically Chinook Winds, he said, "I have always loved the Central Oregon Coast. Many of my friends and colleagues have mentioned Chinook Winds and Lincoln City as their favorite location on the Oregon Coast. I also wanted to come home to Oregon and be closer to my family, children and grandchildren. I am impressed with the staff I have met. They are friendly and extremely helpful and the professionalism here is refreshing."
