

Siletz Tribal Restoration Pow-Wow • Nov. 14, 2015 • Lincoln City, Oregon

Photos by Diane Rodriguez

Siletz Tribal Head Start students sing songs to the delight of those attending the Restoration Celebration.

Education Committee members Kimbrali Somes, Divona Christiansen, Lillie Butler and Spencer Hatch (below) help Jane Tieken, mother of the late Teacher Jayne (Albrecht), present a $1,000 scholarship to Katrina Martin (bottom photo), who was joined by her father, Keith Taylor, and grandmother, Aggie Pilgrim, as she accepted the award.

Left: Guest speaker Michelle Singer, project manager for Native STAND (Students Together Against Negative Decisions) at Oregon Health & Science University, talks about her long-standing relationship with the Siletz Tribe and Chemawa Indian School.

Below: Bud Lane (left) and Delores Pigsley (right) present a Tribal Pendleton blanket to Singer.

