The Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife brings fresh whole-body hatchery steelhead from the Siletz River trap to share with Tribal members. ODFW releases the wild steelhead and salmon to continue up river. They bring the hatchery fish to the Tribe and to Food Share of Lincoln County. We receive a call from ODFW in the morning, then we contact Tribal members via robo-call and email about the estimated time of arrival. On July 6, the time estimate was between 2-3 p.m. The fish truck arrived at 2:45 p.m. and we had a lot of folks lined up for fish. We received 90 fish and distributed two per Tribal member household. All the fish were gone in 10-15 minutes!
