Celebration of Honor features Field of Honor, medal ceremonies, free buffet and glass float drop

For the past 13 years, Chinook Winds Casino Resort has spearheaded the annual Celebration of Honor, a public event that honors active duty personnel, military veterans and their families. This year's event is scheduled for Sept. 14-18.

The annual Celebration of Honor includes the Field of Honor, with 1,000 flags overlooking the ocean; the Oregon Memorial Wall; and vendors on site to offer information to veterans and their families.

This year, the Spirit of 45 organization joins in with the World War II Wall of Honor. It is collecting WWII photos of veterans "who inspired and laid the foundation for the world we live in today."

On Sept. 15, veterans and active duty personnel eat free during open hours at the Siletz Bay Buffet. Veterans and active duty personnel must stop by the Winners Circle to register and show proof of military service (DD-214 or other military ID) to receive this benefit. Only one free voucher per person.

The free comedy show is back this year on Sept. 15 with comedian Don Barnhart and Jeff Capri. Just show proof of military service for two free tickets.

On Sept. 17, the Oregon Coast Veterans Association hosts a benefit golf tournament at Chinook Winds Golf Resort.

The Run for Honor 5K and walk will take place Sept. 18. Active duty military and veterans get to run/walk for free and get a free shirt. To register, go to chinookwindscasino.com or call Heather Hatton at 541-996-5766.

Many veterans services have joined the event this year to provide services and information to veterans and their families. Among the confirmed attendees are My Healthy Vet, Vet Center (readjustment counseling service), Vets Helping Vets HQ, Veterans Benefits Administration, Northwest Battle Buddies, Umpqua Valley Chapter 905 (agent orange), Westcare Tillamook CRV Advocate, PTSD Foundation (Portland), Lincoln County Veterans Services and Oregon Spirit of 45.

The veterans services tent will be located in the parking area across from valet. The tent will be open Sept. 16-17 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Contact Bill John for more information at 541-996-5815.

This tribute to our service men and women begins with a soft opening on Sept. 14 at 5 p.m. with the Oregon Traveling Tribute Wall and American Infantry Soldier Camp on display and available for viewing.

Opening ceremonies at the Field of Honor, in the open field behind Chinook Winds, take place Sept. 16 at 6 p.m.

The Oregon Veterans Medal Presentation Ceremonies take place at 2 p.m. on Sept. 16 and 5 p.m. on Sept. 17 on the Field of Honor just behind the casino. Many friends and family members of service men and women killed in action will post flags on behalf of their fallen heroes at the beginning of the medal ceremony.

The Oregon Veterans Medal is a custom-designed medal that signifies Oregon's appreciation for the service and sacrifice of veterans. To qualify for this medal, an application form must be completed in advance with proof of military service attached.

Forms are available at the Field of Honor, starting at noon on Sept. 14. For more information, visit veteransoforegon.com or call 971-806-0882.

On Sept. 18, the rededication of the Desert Storm Memorial takes place in front of the casino at 2 p.m. The Siletz Tribal Honor Guard and Tribal drummers will start the dedication. State Rep. David Gomberg is the keynote speaker.

Your casual stroll on the beach could provide a hidden treasure in the form of a red, white or blue glass float that was carefully placed among the miles of sand, shells and driftwood by Lincoln City Visitor and Convention Bureau volunteers. This treasure-discovering promotion is part of the critically acclaimed "Finders Keepers" community program.

Your participation is welcomed; contact Heather Hatton at 541-996-5766 or heatherh@CWCResort.com or Bill John at 541-996-5815 or williamj@cwresort.com for more information on how to get involved and volunteer for this annual event honoring those who serve and have served our country.

Families, youth groups, businesses and organizations can become involved with the Celebration of Honor in a number of ways. A fundraiser for a veterans group; a special or discount at your business for veterans and their families; red, white and blue decorations at your store; flying red, white and blue kites; displaying the American flag at your home or business; shaking the hand of a veteran or active duty person and offering a "welcome home" or "thank you"; or planning an event are just a few ways you can become part of this year's celebration.

Whether it's a big event or a small fundraiser – every effort contributes to make the 13th Celebration of Honor more meaningful and personal.
