

Remember to report your hunting, fishing harvests

As the hunting season begins, Tribal members are reminded to report harvests of deer, elk, salmon and shellfish to the Natural Resources Department.

Per the Tribal Hunting, Fishing and Gathering Ordinance, the Tribal member issued a tag is personally responsible for reporting within three business days if a tag is filled.

Names of Tribal members issued tags who report filled tags are entered into one of the incentive drawings below.

Drawings for incentives occur after the season has ended.

Deer/elk hunting incentives

Cabela's gift cards – $100, $75 and $50

Cultural salmon fishing incentive

Cabela's gift card – $50

Shellfish gathering incentive

By Mama Whitebear

On the behalf of Siletz Tribal Elder Dino Butler and family, I would like to put my hands up for the utmost respect to the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians Tribal Council for giving us the honor of driving and placing their Tribal flag in solidarity and support of the Standing Rock No Pipe Line along with 120 other Tribes' flags on their ancestral lands.

Thank you Luhui Whitebear-Cupp, representing Coastal Band of the Chumash and Southwest nations, for driving us there and following the direction given from Creator to take our family pipe and other family flags to honor John Trudell and Nilack Butler to DAPL.

Much honor to our grandchildren Chechio and Aqiwo-Xus who walked us all in. Masi, Anthony Anderson for bringing your children representing Warm Springs Tribal youth leadership; Honey-Rose Butler for your songs and security representing Canada, Siletz and Umatilla ancestors; Precious Rosella, Lil Man Chewy in being part of the experience helping and prayers shared with us.

For all the relatives who helped make this possible, for us to get there and return home safely, this trip would have not been possible. Thank you Snoqualmie Tribe, Marvin Kemp and family, Michele Buchanan, Elaine Pearl Rilatos-Smith and family, David Gray, Alana Lane, Dorothy Lane, Margaret Bartley, Robin Youngblood, Steve G, Melvin G, our sons Molo, Ché and Buddha, and Karen Rudolph for renting the car. This trip really couldn't have happened without your love and support. Definitely the prayers and Creator above all.

Logsdan Community Club to hold annual Harvest Auction fundraiser

LOGSDEN, Ore. – The annual Logsdan Community Club Harvest Auction will be held Oct. 8 from 6-9 p.m.

The largest fundraiser of the year for the Logsdan Community Club, this annual family-friendly event continues to delight those who attend.

An abundance of garden fresh vegetables and fruit, plants, fresh-baked culinary delights, home canning, unique and one-of-a-kind items, gift certificates and gift giving items beyond imagination will be included in the auction. Purchase a hot dog, chips and a drink for $3 or homemade cookies for a quarter to munch on during the bidding.

For those who wish to donate an item (no clothes, please) to the auction, please drop your items off between 3-6 p.m. on Oct. 7 or 2-5 p.m. on Oct. 8. Gift certificates can be sent to The Logsdan Community Club, P.O. Box 67, Logsdan, OR 97357.

The Logsdan Community Club donates a portion of its profits back to the community, including the Siletz Valley Volunteer Firefighters. Located at the junction of the Logsdan/Siletz Highway and Moonshine Park Road, the Logsdan Community Club is situated on a historic site where the local school once sat.

Today's facility, built in the 1980s, is available to rent and is a wonderful location for local gatherings, including weddings, family reunions, memorials and other celebrations. The facility also houses a commercial kitchen for cottage industry entrepreneurs who market culinary items and is a designated emergency shelter.

Rental rates for events are reduced for individuals who become members of the Logsdan Community Club. The cost to join is $25.

For more information on the auction, contact Renee Preston at 541-444-1050 and for information about renting the building for an event, contact Joan Lofton at 541-444-2233.
