Paint the Town Purple

Oct. 10, 2017 • Siletz Tribal Community Center

Several people joined the CARE Program to support survivors during Domestic Violence Awareness Month by making purple decorations for their home or workplace. Ashliegh Ramirez and Angela Ramirez (top), Liz John (top right) and Jessica Garcia (right) all chose to make wreaths. John even went a step further by dyeing her hair purple. Other events sponsored by the CARE Program included encouraging employees to wear purple on Tuesdays, a film screening of A Thousand Voices, a Take Back the Night walk and the Siletz Valley Early College Academy football team wearing purple socks during its final game.
