Coming to Siletz in March:

The Gottman-inspired Couple's Retreat did not occur as planned on Jan. 12, 2018, due to not enough couples registering for the event. A new retreat is planned for March 9, so please spread the word. Spring is in the air, time to give your relationship a tune-up?

About the Gottman method:

This is an evidence-based practice that helps couples work on their relationships. It starts with an extensive survey that provides detailed information to the therapist and is used to create an ultimate and unique treatment plan for the couple. Topics explored include a) The four horsemen (the four factors most likely to cause friction in a relationship) – criticism, defensiveness, contempt and stonewalling, b) Aftermath of a fight, and c) Love maps.

What is a Gottman-inspired Couple's Retreat?

- 1) An opportunity to reconnect with your partner and work on little issues before they become big.
- 2) A day to relax, enjoy your time with your partner, eat good food and learn how to take your relationship to the next level.
- 3) An opportunity to learn new tools from Gottman's proven methods to help your relationship become what you and your partner agree you want.

How do we register to go?

All couples wanting to attend the retreat will need to be registered by the mental health specialist for PAO and SAO.

Once registered, couples will be asked to complete a survey online. Once the survey is completed, couples approved for registration will be given further instructions. To register, please submit you and your significant other's email addresses to your area office, attn.: Rachel Adams.

Transportation to Siletz?

At this time, transportation is likely but not yet confirmed for certain. Couples who need transportation are encouraged to register and find out more.

Child care?

Child care is not likely at this time but is still under research as well.

Traditional Coping

While Gottman's methods are tried and true, the Siletz people are still encouraged to participate in traditional methods of healing. It is a good time to attend a sweat and pray for clarity on new goals to set. As always, drum circles, talking circles and smudging are different ways to stay connected with our ancestors and pay tribute to our roots. Some people find peace in calling on Creator for clarity and health.

The Siletz Tribal Arts & Heritage Society (STAHS) was formed in 2013 as a nonprofit to enhance the Tribe's ability to develop the Siletz Tribal Cultural Center. STAHS also helps the Tribe with acquiring object and archival collections.

Chinook Winds Casino in Lincoln City opened in 1995. In 2004, the Siletz Tribe purchased the former Shilo Inn adjacent to the casino and opened Chinook Winds Casino Resort. Chinook Winds Golf Resort opened in 2005 when the Tribe purchased the former Lakeside Golf and Fitness Center in Lincoln City.

The combination of Tribal employees and those at Chinook Winds Casino Resort has made the Siletz Tribe the largest employer in Lincoln County.

The Siletz Tribe has honored its tradition of sharing within the community by distributing more than $14.7 million through the Siletz Tribal Charitable Contribution Fund and other Tribal resources. Chinook Winds has donated more than $2.8 million in cash and fund-raising items since 1995. It also provides in-kind donations of convention space for various fund-raisers as well as technical support, advertising and manpower for events.
