Holden receives STAHS award during Community Days

The Siletz Tribal Arts & Heritage Society presented the second annual Cultural Enlightenment Award on April 21 at the Lincoln City Community Days Banquet.

The banquet is held annually to celebrate the contributions and accomplishments of citizens who have improved the quality of life for those residing in the area. Sixteen awards were given during the evening's festivities.

The STAHS award is presented each year to a person who has taken measures to promote, celebrate and share the unique qualities, history and culture of indigenous peoples of this continent.

This year's recipient, Mike Holden, has worn many hats, including Lincoln

City's chief of police and mayor, director of the Chamber of Commerce and director of security for Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

He was one of the first people to be appointed to the Siletz Tribal Charitable Contribution Fund board and currently is the chairman.

From 1999 to date, the fund has donated $11.6 million to nonprofit organizations in an 11-county service area that includes Lincoln County.

STAHS board members Cynthia Farlow and Glendora Osborn presented Holden with an etched glass award embossed with the STAHS basketweave logo and his wife, Bonnie, with a necklace created by Farlow.
