

Fisher named to state's Diversity Leadership Team

Tribal member Randy A. Fisher has been named to the State of Oregon/Oregon Health Authority Diversity Leadership Team.

The purpose of the team is to catalyze an organizational culture of change that embraces diversity, equity and inclusion. In this role, Fisher will leverage his lived and learned experiences to recruit, retain and promote a culturally responsive and inclusive workforce that reflects Oregon's diverse populations.

Fisher states, "As a Tribal member, I want to use my experience to help ensure minorities are treated fairly and given every equal opportunity for a rewarding career working to help the diverse citizens of the state of Oregon. Now more than ever, we need to ensure people are being treated fairly."

Fisher is a senior technology manager for the Oregon Health Authority, where he manages large-scale health-related technology projects.

STAHS needs your recipes to create second cookbook, fundraiser for museum

Do you have a well-loved recipe written on a tattered piece of paper or recipe card you pull out all the time that is getting harder to read? It would be heartbreaking to lose that piece of paper!

Do you have a family recipe for an amazing chocolate cake, special cookie recipe, the best comfort food or a fry bread recipe you are willing to share with the world? Are there some favorite meals you cook that you want written down so your children and generations to come will be able to have access to it?

The Siletz Tribal Arts and Heritage Society is creating a second edition custom cookbook featuring favorite recipes submitted by Tribal members, their families and friends of STAHS. These cookbooks will be professionally published.

Our first edition was published in 2017 and we sold out last year. Many who purchased the first edition treasure their cookbook as they can recognize their family members who contributed and they can pass on that family jewel.

The second edition is sure to be a cherished keepsake as well. Money raised will be used for the capital campaign for the construction costs of the Siletz Tribal Cultural Center and Museum, A Place for the People.

Please submit 3-8 recipes so you and your family can be represented in our cookbook. We especially want your name and the origin of the recipe if you received it as it was passed down in your family. That is what will make this cookbook a treasure for all!

Having many recipes from Tribal members, their families and friends of STAHS will ensure that our cookbook is a success. We are using the Morris Press Cookbook's website to easily submit recipes online by you or we can enter it for you.

If you would like to submit recipes, please contact us at STAHS.Board@gmail.com for the website and login information. If you do not have access to the Internet or a computer to easily enter the recipe or want us to enter it, you can email it or mail a hard copy of the recipe to STAHS, P.O. Box 8, Siletz, OR 97380-0008.

Please submit your recipes online by Aug. 30, 2020, or if mailing to us by Aug. 15, 2020, so we can meet our deadline for having it printed in time for the holidays.

We anticipate a great demand for our cookbooks and we want to be certain we order enough. To reserve your copies, email us at STAHS.Board@gmail.com with the number of cookbooks you would like with your contact information. Once all of the recipes have been submitted, we will know the cost of the cookbook.

General Welfare Exclusion Housing Rehabilitation Program

Formerly Over-Income Rehabilitation Grant

This program funds over-income families with a $10,000 grant for construction rehabilitation on the primary residence they own.

The over-income grant is for eligible applicants and is limited to one grant per person/address/household. If you have already received a General Welfare Exclusion Housing Rehabilitation Grant, you are not eligible to apply.

If you have received services for the following programs, you are not eligible to apply for the General Welfare Exclusion Housing Rehabilitation Grant for five years: Down Payment Assistance, NAHASDA Rehabilitation Program, NAHASDA Elders Replacement Program, NAHASDA Rehabilitation Program for Elder Tribal Members, NAHASDA Rehabilitation Program for Disabled Tribal Members, Homeownership Program/Mutual Help and BIA Self Governance.

Rehabilitation refers to repairs or renovations to the home, but does not include appliances, saunas, hot tubs, swimming pools, driveways, fences, etc. Over-income refers to Tribal members whose income exceeds the income limits set by the Native American Housing Assistance and Self Determination Act (NAHASDA). These are listed below:

1	2	3	Base 4	5	6	7	8
$42,280	$48,320	$54,360	$60,400	$65,232	$70,064	$74,896	$79,728

Applications, including proof of current annual income, enrollment and proof of homeownership with the Tribal member's name on it, must be submitted to the Housing office by Friday, July 31, 2020, at 4:30 p.m. Applications received after that date and time will not be accepted by the Siletz Tribal Housing Department.

Qualified applicants will be placed in the lottery drawing that will be held in August on a date approved by the Tribal Council.

If you would like an application or have any questions, please call Jeanette Aradoz at 800-922-1399, ext. 1316, or 541-444-8316.
