Financial Wellness Resource

By Daniel McCue, Chief Financial Officer

One of our banking partners, Key Bank, has teamed up with Everfi, the nation's leading provider of digital financial literacy curriculum, to provide a customized and comprehensive financial literacy program tailored to the needs of Indian Country.

This program will provide the Siletz membership a learning experience that can be accessed anywhere from tablets, phones and PCs 24/7. Once you're logged in, you can take advantage of more than 30 relevant topics, such as:

- Checking and Savings Account Basics
- Healthy Financial Habits
- Budgeting for Families
- Credit Scores
- Buying a Home

- Saving for Retirement
- Financial Caregiving

There is no cost to access this online learning platform for anyone at the Tribe as it is complementary to the Tribe's relationship with Key Bank. I would encourage all Tribal members – whether a pre-teen, someone who might be starting fresh out of college or minors who might be coming of age to access their minor trust – anyone who might need some education about financial wellness, to give this a try.

As a potential future leader of your Tribe, your ability to make strong financial decisions and navigate the financial system will help you and your community thrive. This program brings you financial education in easy-to-follow modules that fit your schedule. Find it at <https://tinyurl.com/pebmbf9c>.

Be safe. Stay home. Stay well.

477 Self-Sufficiency Program

Non-Needy Caretaker Relative (NNCR)

Assistance for caretaker relatives of a Siletz Tribal child/children

The program may assist with:

Financial assistance and support services to meet the needs of the Siletz child/children.

Who is a caretaker relative?

A caretaker relative is not the parent of a Siletz enrolled dependent child and is responsible for the care, control and supervision of the child.

Caretaker relatives can be related to the child in the following ways: blood relatives or culturally established family members.

Income Guidelines

Non-needy caretaker relatives do NOT have to meet income requirements to qualify.

However, if the caretaker is receiving ongoing financial assistance from the State or Tribe, the family will not be eligible for NNCR.

Example of an NNCR

A grandparent (or other relative) who is responsible for the care, control and supervision of a Siletz enrolled child who would like assistance to help meet the needs of the child.
