Member of the Native American
Journalists Association

Honorable Chairperson Delores Pigsley,

Reflections of gratitude – I realize many were involved in having the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon recognized as a federally recognized Tribe (example, Mark Hatfield and many others).

I just wanted to reflect on the following and share with you (I know you were there).

From President Jimmy Carter

Sept. 5, 1980

I am pleased to sign into law S. 2055, an act to establish a reservation for the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians of Oregon.

Early in my administration I signed into law the Siletz Indian Restoration Act of 1977, restoring Federal acknowledgment of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon and making them eligible for the special programs and services provided by the United States for Indians. Section 7 of that act provided for the establishment of a reservation for the tribe and required the administration to submit to the Congress within 2 years a plan for the establishment of the reservation.

Blessing to all,
Diana P. Murray
