Rick Bayya and his blended family

Bayya helps create active, safe space at Siletz Recreation Center

In April, we want to showcase another important part of our diabetes team: The Siletz Recreation Center!

The recreation center is run by Rick Bayya, physical exercise coordinator, and Tribal member Caleb Williams is temping there.

Rick is an avid sport, game and technology enthusiast and enjoys spending time with his partner and their beautiful blended family. Caleb is enrolled in school and helps support department goals as well as making the recreation center a great place to be.

In 2023, you will see art classes, outdoor games, frof and mini-golf as activities to engage in at the center itself.

In addition to creating activity and safe space, the recreation center team also runs the Tribe's outdoor equipment rental program. Rick recently acquired mountain bikes, helmets and more for Tribal members to utilize alongside our kayaks, paddle boards and more.
