

Elections

National elections are so important this year; I hope you are all registered and have voted. The results will possibly have been made public before you receive this newspaper.

It is also important that you register to vote in the Tribal election that will take place in February.

NNABA

The Northwest Native American Basketry Association held its annual gathering in Tulalip, Wash., at the Tribe's beautiful culture center. Many Siletz folks attended and made some beautiful baskets, woven purses, hats, mats and many other items. We also enjoyed conversations with other Tribes.

Tribal Restoration Celebration

We will celebrate 47 years of Tribal restoration on Nov. 16 at Chinook Winds Casino Resort. Please join us in this meaningful celebration.

The ceremony in the convention center begins at 10 a.m., followed by the pow-wow at 6 p.m. Hope to see you there.

Join us for meals at the Tribal Community Center

We are excited to announce that congregate meals will start Nov. 5 and will be held every Tuesday; doors will open at 11 a.m. and a meal will be provided at noon at the Siletz Tribal Community Center.

It's a wonderful opportunity for Siletz Tribal elders to come together, share a meal and enjoy each other's company.

What to expect

Our congregate meals are designed to provide nutritious food in a friendly environment. Each week, you can look forward to a delicious meal prepared with care. It's not just about the food, it's about fostering connections and building community ties.

Why attend?

- Nourishing Meals: Enjoy a variety of healthy options.
- Social Interaction: Meet new friends and catch up with neighbors.
- Community Spirit: Participate in a welcoming atmosphere that promotes well-being.

Mark your calendar!

We invite our Siletz Tribal elders to join us starting Nov. 5 and every Tuesday thereafter. If you have any questions or need more information, please contact Maggie McAfee, Siletz Tribal Elders Title VI coordinator, at 541-444-8233.

We look forward to seeing you there!
