Ask Ev

by Evelyn Ludvigson

Shame!

Q. I see where there are going to be more TV shows revolving around psychics who "speak" with the dead. I do like John Edward, but my favorite is Sylvia Browne. She's on television occasionally. However, to date, she doesn't have a show of her own. Will she be doing one anytime soon? Jan D.

A. Sylvia says that television producers have been asking her to do a show for some time now. However, she's just not interested. Her pet project right now is a movie of her life which Paramount execs are interested in. Right now, this is just in the talking stage. * * *

Q. Is it true that the Rosie magazine, run by Rosie O'Donnell, is going to cease publication? I hope not. I'm a big fan. Kelly M.

A. The magazine is in some trouble, having dropped steeply in terms of circulation. Some in the know are speculating that the mag may revert back to McCall's, which is what it was before becoming Rosie. However, Rosie, who's very hands on with this project, is doing everything in her power to stay at the helm and steer the faltering publication in the right direction. To be fair, many magazines have suffered this year as a result of scaled-down advertising. This may only be a temporary glitch.

Q. I really enjoyed "The Bachelor" when it was on television. It was so romantic, and Alex Michel is such a good-looking guy. Tell me, when are he and Amanda Marsh. the woman he finally chose, going to get married? Kate H. A. The bloom appears to be off that particular rose. The two really don't see much of each other at all anymore and they live in two different states Now really, Kate, you didn't honestly believe that this was for real, did you

Q. What is Joan Collins up to these days? Since "Dynasty," we haven't seem much of her. Eileen D. A. Don't fret. Joan has committee herself to a six-month stint or "Guiding Light" where she'll be play ing Alexandra Spaulding, last seen in 1999. Her first air date is September 19, so stay tuned.

Q. Now that Josh Ryan Evans, who played Timmy on "Passions" has died, are there any plans in the works to recast the role? To be honest, I don't believe I'd really like that. Josh really was one-of-a-kind! Hayley R.

A. Ironically, Josh's character of Timmy passed away on the soap the same day the actor himself tragically died. As for recasting the role, there are no plans to do so. Apparently, the producers feel the same way you do No one could adequately take over the role Josh made so much his own. agree - he was a unique talent who will be sorely missed.

ing over those in its path.

Therefore, you must choose your actions wisely. You can either inspire and uplift or debase and tear down those around you. It's up to you. Even something you consider insignificant isn't really so. Everything you do has meaning to everyone around you.

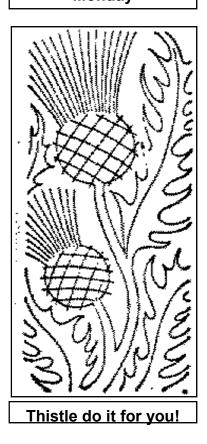

When you're tempted to lash out at a family member, friend or co-worker, curb your tongue. Those words can't be taken back and will reverberate in the minds of those who've been targeted, even if you apologize. Why live with regrets? Instead, treat people with kindness and consideration – exactly what you want from others.

This is what Jesus meant when He said, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." You know how you want to be treated. Apply that to how you treat others.
