PENINGER AT 90 An open house was held at Hubert Peninger's residence on Airport Drive on Oct. 10 to celebrate his 90th birthday. Attending were many longtime friends and church members, besides family: daughter Shirley son-in-law Russ Berkner, from Hemet, Calif.; grandson Stewart and granddaughter Karen, both from San Diego; and son Jim Peninger, and his wife, Coleen, from Grants Pass. Hubert moved to Illinois Valley in 1942, and worked many years in the lumber industry. He and his late wife lived in O'Brien until 1955, when they moved to current home. (Photo courtesy of family)

Memorial service set Saturday, Oct. 26 for Edna A. Hoskins, 101

A memorial service is planned at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 26 in the RCC Belt Bldg. in Kerby for longtime valley resident Edna Alice Hoskins, 101, who died on Sunday, Oct. 20, 2002 at Highland House Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Grants Pass.

Chapel of the Valley Funeral Home in Grants Pass provided private cremation

It's the family's wish that memorial contributions be made to: IVHS (Illinois Valley High School) Alumni and Friends Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 2086, Cave Junction, OR 97523.

Mrs. Hoskins was born Edna Alice Wilber on Aug. 18, 1901 to Edward and Nellie Wilber in Bryon, Ohio. At the age of 4 she traveled by covered wagon with her family from California to Oregon.

On Sept. 28, 1919 in the Yamhill Valley she married Louie McCready, who died on Dec. 12, 1929. On Jan. 1, 1934 she married William "Bud" Hoskins, who died on Dec. 12, 1959. The Hoskins family moved from Yamhill Valley to Cave Junction in 1934. She worked as a house-keeper.

She was a member of Western Star, Chapter 64, Order of the Eastern Star; Kerby Marguerite Rebekah Lodge III; American Legion Auxiliary of Post 70; and the Illinois Valley Garden Club.

She loved to dance, and she enjoyed rafting on the Lower Rogue River with her family. Her bottle and elephant figureine collection were well known.

Surviving are five daughters, Alice Steele, of Grants Pass, Mary Hoskins, of Florida, Sara Jones, Norma

Trickel, and Adelaide Porter, all of Cave Junction; and two sons, Doug Hoskins, of Cave Junction, and Richard McCready, of Cottage Grove, Ore.

In addition, spanning five generations she had 27 grand-children; 59 great-grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. A daughter, Dorothy Berthaud; and two sons, William E. Hoskins and Frank L. Hoskins, died before her.

James R. Forrest

James (Jim) R. Forrest, 72, of Cave Junction, died at his home on Monday, Oct. 14, 2002 after a short battle with brain cancer. Grants Pass Funeral Alternatives and Crematory handled arrangements.

It's the family's wish that memorial contributions be made to Crossroads Veterinary Hospital, P.O. Box 309, Cave Junction, OR 97523.

Because of his love of animals, before his death he had established a low-cost spay and neuter program at Crossroads, with the wish that friends and acquaintances would continue to support the program by donating to it.

Mr. Forrest was born on June 13, 1930 in San Francisco, and moved to Oregon more than 30 years ago.

He had worked in real estate developing and wood stove business for many years.

He was a vintage motorcycle racer in the Bay Area and Oregon, riding his Triumph dirt

MUSICAL DUO - Lydia and Ross Welcome were among performers during this month's Art tracker, "Mellow Yellow #72, for many years.

Survivors include his daughter, Alana Forrest, of San Jose, Calif.; four brothers, Norman Forrest, of Fremont, Calif., Joseph Forrest, Dennis Forrest and Alan Forrest, of Fremont and Monterey, Calif.; and numerous nieces and-nephews. He also leaves behind friends and caretakers.

James A. Hembree

James Alfred Hembree, 87, of Cave Junction, died on Sunday, Oct. 13, 2002 in a Grants Pass nursing home.

No services are planned. Southern Oregon Cremation Services is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Hembree was born on April 3, 1915 in Shawnee, Okla., where he grew up and graduated from high school in 1933. In El Monte, Calif. on Feb. 22, 1936 he married Pauline Pearl Mock, who died on March 19, 2002.

He worked for Sperry Mill Inc. in Los Angeles as a heavy-duty truck mechanic and took care of a fleet. After retiring, the Hembrees traveled most the time, enjoying the Pacific Coast and Arizona. They moved to Oregon 24 years ago, living in Cave Junction for 12 years.

He enjoyed leather work, fishing, traveling, and working in his yard.

Survivors include his daughter, Deanna Lynn Matthews, of Visalia, Calif.; a brother, J. E. Hembree, of Grants Pass; a sister, Betty Hembree, of Washington state; five grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; and nieces and nephews.

His wife, Pauline; a son, Dale; a granddaughter, Heidi; three brothers; one sister, and his parents died before him.

Phone Home It's Me – God

Jesus once related a parable about two sons. Their father owned a vineyard and went to one son and asked him to work in the vineyard that day. The son at first refused. However, he relented and ultimately did as his father asked. The second son, when asked, immediately said yes to his father but did the opposite. He sat home all day.

Jesus asked the crowd which son would be the one to go to heaven. They guessed wrong. All thought it was the son who said yes to his father right away, even though he didn't do as he was asked.

It was the son who first refused to obey but then did who would get to heaven. And this is the point of the parable. Despite a rocky start, you can change your ways. You can become a person of commitment and obedience to Me. Your initial disobedience will be forgiven, provided you finally turn to Me.

That is the nature of redemption. It is your actions, more than your words, which count. Always remember that.
