A Look Back This Week

Special schedule to be announced

On January 16, 1883, the Pendleton Act was passed, reforming civil service ... January 17, 1950, masked bandits robbed Brink's, Inc.'s Boston express office of $2.8 million, $1.2 million of which was in cash ... January 18, 1969, expanded four-party Vietnam peace talks began ... January 17, 1991, the U.S. and its allies launched a devastating attack on Iraq, which had invaded Kuwait months earlier, from the air ... January 17, 1994, a pre-dawn earthquake hit the Los Angels area, causing 61 deaths and heavy damage ... January 20, 1994, Attorney General Janet Reno appointed Robert Fiske as Independent Counsel to investigate the Whitewater affair . January 17, 1995, a bill to end Congress' exemption from federal labor laws, the first in a series of measures in the Republicans' "Contract With America," cleared Congress ... January 16, 1997, a bomb was detonated at an abortion clinic in Atlanta, Ga. ... January 19, 1997, another bomb was detonated at an abortion clinic in Tulsa, Okla., injuring six people ... January 15, 2000, the Republican presidential candidates debated in Johnston, Iowa, with Senator John McCain (Arizona) claiming that Gov. George Bush's (Texas) taxcut plan would endanger Social Security, while Alan Keyes proposed eliminating the income tax altogether ... January 17, 2000, in the Democratic presidential candidate debate in Des Moines, Iowa, former Senator Bill Bradley (New Jersey) challenged Vice President Al Gore to appeal to President Clinton to issue an executive order that would ban racial profiling ... January 15, 2002, John Walker Lindh, the 20-year-old American seized with the Taliban near Mazar-e Sharif, Afghanistan, was charged with conspiring to kill U.S. citizens and abetting terrorist groups ... January 17, 2002, representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross arrived to see the al-Qaeda prisoners being held in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; the Red Cross subsequently said the U.S. might have violated the Geneva Convention by releasing photos showing prisoners kneeling and shackled.

Success consists of getting up just one more time than you fall.
