Classified ads deadline will change 28th

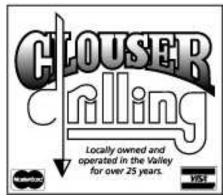

All items for "Illinois Valley News" will need to be submitted by 3 p.m. on Fridays for the next week's issue -effective Friday, Feb. 28.

The deadline includes classified ads. However, classified ads will be accepted in the office until noon Mondays for inclusion in a Too Late To Classify column.

Since a revised deadline went into effect for the past several weeks, display ads, announcements and other items have been due by 3 p.m. Fridays. The change has been well accepted.

Although classified ads were excluded at the time, it has been decided to now include them in the new deadline. The revision is necessary to expedite production of the valley's newspaper.

Classified ads brought in after 3 p.m. Fridays will cost $4 for a maximum 20 words.
