Republican group unveils 'good fiscal' state budget

A "fiscally responsible" Oregon state budget for the next biennium has been proposed by the co-chairmen of the Ways and Means Committee, according to Oregon House Speaker Karen Minnis (R-Wood Village), Majority Leader Tim Knopp (R-Bend), and Ways and Means Co-Chairman Randy Miller (R-West Linn).

"It's a fiscally responsible plan that lives within the state's means," they said. The co-chairmen's budget, released by Co-Chairmen Sen. Kurt Schrader (D-Canby) and Miller, and Vice Chairman Sen. Steve Harper (R-Klamath Falls) provides a total General Fund and Lottery Fund budget for the 2003-05 Biennium of $11.23 billion, including nearly $5 billion for schools.

"This is a balanced budget plan," said Miller, "that meets our constitutional obligation to provide for schools, public safety and public health, within our existing resources.

Said Minnis, "I applaud Sen. Schrader, Rep. Miller, Sen. Harper and the entire Joint Ways and Means Committee for the balanced, bipartisan and thoughtful plan they have developed. While this budget presents challenges, the co-chairmen have shown that we can live within our means. This is the next step in the budget process, but certainly not the last, as the Legislature continues to refine this plan in consultation with the governor."

Knopp added, "The co-Chairmen's budget highlights the critical importance of reforming PERS this session, as it will allow the Legislature to redirect at least $160 million in savings back into schools, health care, public safety and other critical services for Oregonians.

The co-chairmen's budget clearly shows that we can manage our resources in these tough times without having to ask Oregonians for more of their hard-earned money."
