A Look Back This Week

On May 6, 1626, Peter Minuit bought Manhattan for the Dutch West India Co. from the Man-hat-a Indians for goods valued at approximately $24; he named the island New Amsterdam ... May 10, 1775, Colonel Ethan Allen, along with Colonel Benedict Arnold, captured Fort Ticonderoga in upstate New York; they also captured Crown Point ... May 10, 1869, a golden spike was driven at Promontory, Utah, marking the completion of the transcontinental railroad at the junction of Central Pacific and Union Pacific ... May 11, 1894, a strike began against Pullman at a railroad car plant in Chicago ... May 7, 1915, a German submarine sank the British ship, Lusitania; 128 American passengers were killed ... May 8, 1919, the first transatlantic flight by a U.S. Navy seaplane left Rockaway, N.Y. ... May 6, 1935, the Works Progress Administration (WPA) was instituted ... May 11, 1935, the Rural Electrification Administration was created ... May 7, 1945, Germany surrendered ... May 8, 1945, V-E Day was proclaimed ... May 8, 1953, President Eisenhower announced that the U.S. had given France $60 million for the Indochina War ... May 10, 1968, peace talks aimed at ending the war in Vietnam began in Paris ... May 8, 1972, President Nixon announced the mining of North Vietnam's ports ... May 9, 1974, the House Judiciary Committee opened impeachment hearings against President Nixon ... May 7, 1984, American Vietnam war veterans reached an out-of-court settlement with seven chemical companies in a class-action suit over the use of the herbicide Agent Orange during the war ... May 7, 2002, a meeting in Washington, D.C., between Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon and President Bush was interrupted by news of a suicide bombing in Rishon le Zion, Israel; Sharon quickly returned home ... May 8, 2002, Robert Mueller, who became FBI director a few days before the terrorist attacks of 9/11, told a Senate committee that the FBI had paid insufficient heed to a July, 2001 memo from an FBI agent in Phoenix warning that Arab men with possible terrorist ties were taking flight lessons and calling for a nationwide review. Cancer foundation names officers

The Oregon & S.W. Washington Affiliate of The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, the "premier volunteer organization on breast cancer," announced its 2003-'04 board of officers. Tina Foster, a US Bank senior vice president and region manager for Oregon and S.W. Washington, has been named president of the local affiliate. Others: Vice president, Sia Lindstrom, Multnomah County Health Dept.; secretary, Susan Schwartz, River Network, director of finance and administration; treasurer, Shirley Cyr, Moss Adams.

The 2003 Komen Portland Race for the Cure co-chairmen, Cathryn Cushing and Robin Hawley, will share responsibility for overall race coordination. Cushing is the owner of Portland-based Cushing Consulting; and Hawley is a project manager for the city of Portland.

Kelley earns top honor

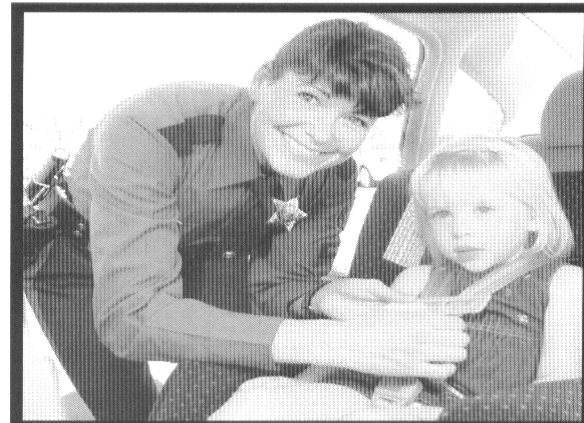

IVHS senior Erin Kelley is April's Principal Student of the Month. Kelley is the daughter of Michael and Kathy Kelley. She has kept a 3.5 grade point average. She is a member of the high school equestrian team and placed second nationally in horsemanship for showing and endurance riding.

Her favorite classes are English, creative writing and chemistry. Kelley is involved in the Smart Reading Program at Evergreen Elementary School, and she works at Kids Camp in the summer. After graduation Kelley plans to take a year off from school to ride and travel, and then attend college.

JoCo sees dip in jobs in during past month

Five of Oregon's 31 local labor market areas lost jobs in March and 24 gained jobs, a result better than in March 2001 but not as positive as in March 2002. The biggest losses were in Josephine County (-150) and Hood River County (-130). Oregon's non-farm payroll employment was up by 1,600 jobs in March, about 4,900 less than normal for the month. Big gainers included Jackson County (+650 jobs), the Salem metro area (+500), Benton County (+490), and the Portland metro area (+300). Josephine County's employment dropped by 150 jobs overall, while wood product manufacturing lost 200 jobs. Jackson County added 650 jobs in March, mostly in retail trade and leisure and accommodations; this gain was close to normal for the month. Curry County added 30 jobs last month in leisure and hospitality. Coos County had no change in total jobs in March, while shedding 60 food manufacturing jobs and gaining 70 retail trade jobs.

WE'RE WATCHING OUT FOR YOUR KIDS. SO BUCKLE 'EM UP.

To make sure kids are buckled up right, officers statewide will be out in full force as part of the Three Flags Enforcement blitz. In Oregon, a child safety seat or booster seat is required by law for kids 6 and under or weighing up to 60 pounds. So make sure your child is buckled into the correct seat for their size. And always put kids under 12 in the back seat — never near an air bag or on your lap. Your children's safety is priceless. So buckle 'em up, every time!
