Historic train restored for celebration

For the first time since 1952, a passenger train returns to historic Astoria as part of the Lewis and Clark bicentennial commemoration.

"We're very excited to be offering this excursion train for the Lewis and Clark bicentennial," said ODOT Rail Division Administrator Claudia Howells.

The train will run four days a week through Sept. 2 along a 97-mile route between Portland and Astoria along the Oregon side of the lower Columbia River.

The train is made up of self-propelled diesel Budd Cars. The four-hour journey runs along right-of-way owned by the Portland and Western Railroad and is the only way to get close to several historic sites visited by the Corps. of Discovery expedition. The route winds through nature preserves and over scenic river trestles.

Trains will run Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays through the summer season. Trains will depart from the Linnton District boarding area at 12222 N.W. Marina Way, off St. Helens Road, two miles north of the St. Johns Bridge off U.S. Highway 30. Parking is free.

A connecting bus from Portland Union Station is also available to take passengers to Linnton for boarding. The bus will leave Union Station at 7:30 a.m. The train will leave Linnton at 8 a.m., arriving in Astoria around noon. The train returns each day from Astoria at 4:45 p.m. arriving back in Linnton at 8:45 p.m. The shuttle bus arrives in Portland Union Station about 9:10 p.m.

Tickets are available through Amtrak (1-800-USA-RAIL) or through area travel agents.
