RCC's Burkey retires, cites PERS as cause

Kathy Burkey, dean of Student Services at Rogue Community College, retired June 1 due to concerns over the state's Public Employees Retirement System (PERS).

Burkey said she arrived at the decision "only after much soul searching, spreadsheet analysis and consultation."

She has requested the RCC Board authorize an additional year's contract so that she can continue working on the college redesign project.

Burkey, who is only the second dean of Student Services in RCC's history, joined RCC in 1980 as a counselor. In May 2000 she was promoted from director of Counseling and Student Programs to succeed the retiring Dr. Tenison Haley. The division oversees student service functions.

"It's unfortunate that PERS has put me in this position," Burkey said, "but we have an incredible number of talented faculty and staff coming up in the next generation and they are our future."

He enjoyed playing golf and spending time with his friends and family. He lived in Woodburn for eight years of his retirement.

In addition to his wife, Rosemarie Rupert, survivors include daughter Ramona Modrich; and one granddaughter.

Good Shepherd Lutheran

On Sunday, June 8 the congregation celebrated Pentecost, the birthday of the church, the time when tongues of fire appeared on the heads of Jesus' disciples and they began to speak in different languages. What caused this? The power of the Holy Spirit, sent by God, to be a conduit between Him and us.

Church activities will include: worship on Sunday, June 15 at 9 a.m.; vacation Bible school, Monday to Friday, June 16-20 at Immanuel Methodist Church; Sunday, June 22 will be the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America's Vision for Mission Annual Churchwide Offering and a guest speaker will speak at 9 a.m. during worship to discuss the various programs supported by this offering.

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

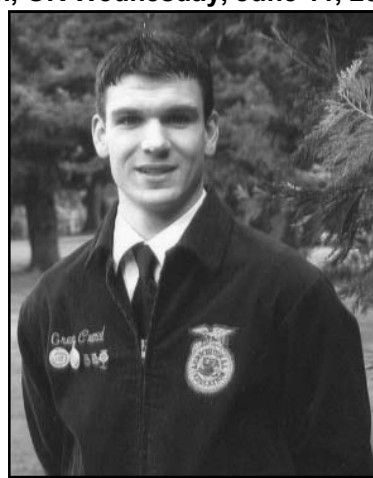

Sunday, June 15, the congregation will honor our earthly fathers, and celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. The second reading will be from Paul's letter to the Romans where Paul tells them that those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

He tells them they received a Spirit of adoption through whom they cry "Abba Father!," and that if they are children of God, they are joint heirs with Christ. Three persons, Father, Son (Christ) and Holy Spirit are mentioned here, and honored on this special day.

Please don't litter!
