Cougar sighted in rural GP

On Monday evening, June 16 the Josephine County Sheriff's Office received a report of a cougar sighting in the 1800 block of Dowell Road in Grants Pass. This is the second sighting in two days in the area.

If a cougar is sighted, contact the sheriff's office, the Oregon State Police or the Oregon Dept. of Fish and Game.

Pilot dies in plane crash

An 81-year-old pilot was found dead in the wreckage of his light plane near Grants Pass Airport in Merlin after possible engine problems on Friday, June 20, said Josephine County Sheriff's Office (JCSO).

The victim was identified as Farn T. Reed of 315 Lathrop Road, Grants Pass.

Witnesses in the area reported at approximately 2:09 p.m. that an aircraft seemed to be having engine problems, and that it had crashed short of the runway on a landing approach.

The single-engine, two-seat craft, believed to be a Cessna, was found between Merlin Road and Brookside Blvd.

Personnel from JCSO, Oregon State Police, firefighters and American Medical Response responded.

Investigators from Federal Aviation Administration and National Transportation Safety Board were to send investigators, said JCSO.
