WE'RE WATCHING OUT FOR YOUR KIDS. SO BUCKLE 'EM UP.

To make sure kids are buckled up right, officers statewide will be out in full force as part of the Three Flags Enforcement blitz. In Oregon, a child safety seat or booster seat is required by law for kids 6 and under or weighing up to 60 pounds. So make sure your child is buckled into the correct seat for their size. And always put kids under 12 in the back seat — never near an air bag or on your lap. Your children's safety is priceless. So buckle 'em up, every time!
