St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

Sunday, July 20 will be the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, and the focus will be on sheep and the shepherd.

The Responsorial Psalm will be Psalm 23, with readings from Jeremiah and Mark.

Even though we have heard these passages many times, we never tire of the comforting words, "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."

Community Bible

The Jericho Project is beginning this week, and on Sunday visitors from Newberg, who will participate, were welcomed.

On Wednesday, July 16, participants will meet at the church at 6 p.m. for prayer, training and assignments.

Summer Kingdom began Monday at Rough & Ready Park.

"I.V. Extreme" will be held at Jubilee Park on Saturday, July 18. Volunteers should phone Diane Gilmore.

Immanuel UMC

On the Fifth Sunday in Kingdomtide, Christians need to reflect on the true foundation of their lives.

The letter to the Ephesians shows that Christ is the key to understanding ourselves and the world. With Christ as foundation, growth in trust and faithfulness as people of God will follow.
