Life Lines

By MELANIE GAYLE

My life has gotten quite busy.

My sister, Karen, gave me a little push a few months ago to sign up for college classes beginning summer term, so I did. I have spent the last couple of months trying to get things finished in preparation for this busy time.

Even last month, I set some goals that would free me up by the first week of

Well, it didn't work out. I started the first week of college with two important projects, as well as some smaller, yet still valuable projects, to complete. So much for having

So while I was in church Sunday, I was praying to the Lord. I wanted to bring all the things to Him that would distract me from worshipping Him, not to mention that I really wanted to spend time with Him and forget the rest of the things in my life.

As I began praying to Him, I let go of everything, and through the tears I asked Him to please, "Help me take your Hand."

You see, I believe that I am right where I am supposed to be. I also believe that even though I am busy, and even stressed, that He makes everything work out in His timing.

When we take God's hand, we give over the

We are no longer lead-

His hand" when I need comfort, direction, help with everything that just jumped in my face, deadlines: the list goes on and on, and so does the need.

I need Him to "Help me take His hand" because I want Him to lead. I need Him to get me through my life. He never expected us to have to make this journey, or walk our walk, on our own. He waits for us to put our hand in His. He loves us that much.

He is interested in what we do; how we do it; how our day goes. He wants to comfort us; love us; strengthen us; be with

Let's look at the Children of Israel. The Children of Israel were in Egypt busting their butts as slaves. They were miserable. They worked too hard. They got nothing in return. They whined to the Lord for deliverance from such an evil and horrible circumstance. But as soon as they were on their way and they no longer had to work hard under the blazing Sun, they began complaining.

So we'll say that even though they were on their way to something better, they couldn't see past the horrible trip through the wilderness they must take.

Instead of them crying out to the Lord to "Help them take His hand," they only complained about the hardships they must endure. Didn't the Lord only have a short time scheduled for this 40-year trip?

And didn't He feed them, water them, sustain them, make sure that their health, youth and even their clothes not wear out?

Where did they go wrong? They didn't take the trip with their hand in the Lord's. They started with Him and then lost their focus. So much so that when they finally reached the Promised Land, they had already worn out their welcome. They had lost their confidence in God's promise, so they were as grasshoppers in their own eyes. Only two out of the entire generation that the Lord delivered would actually possess the Promised Land.

The point is that just as the Children of Israel had quite a walk to walk, we too must endure a narrow but straight road to live for all eternity with Jesus Christ. We can't afford to be swept away by our needs, wants, desires or demands.

We can't lose sight of Jesus when our circumstances aren't what we think they should be; want them to be; or even need them to be.

All you have to do is ask Him to, "Help me take Your hand." There it is that you will find peace, joy, love, hope and contentment -- for sure.
