Friday, July 18

*Deputies said employee error caused an audible alarm at Klamath 1st Bank in Downtown Cave Junction at 6:51 p.m.

*An anonymous woman said campers failed to put out their campfire at Six Mile Campground. Deputies said the campers returned to put out the fire.

*A teen-ager in the 24500 block of Redwood Hwy. said her brother was squeezing her arm and trying to throw her around. Deputies separated the siblings, they said.

*In the 400 block of S. Redwood Hwy. a woman said her ex-husband and brother were hiding her children. Deputies said she did not have the required paperwork completed to get her children because she had given her brother legal guardianship.

*A man in the 29000 block of Redwood Hwy. said someone had built a bon fire with 10-foot high flames.

*At Art's Red Garter Saloon and Steak House a man smashed a beer bottle on the ground and attempted to punch a man. When taken to the ground by bouncers he hit his head and had a cut between his eyes. Deputies said the man was taken home by a friend.

*At My Brother's Pub a woman said her motorcycle goggles with a listed value of $186 were missing. Deputies filed a report for second-degree theft.

Saturday, July 19

*A woman reported an abandoned vehicle was parked on Rough and Ready Creek Road.

*In the 6700 block of Holland Loop a citizen said a woman had opened an account in her name.

*A man in the 100 block of Taurus Lane said someone opened his car door and made other noises at 1:31 a.m.

*In the 1500 block of Rockydale Road a woman said someone knocked her mailbox off its post.

*A citizen in the 200 block of S. Redwood Hwy. said a man tried to remove an exhaust fan from a business. Deputies said the man was warned for trespassing.

*In the 200 block of Shadowbrook Drive Ryan Phillip, 18, was cited and released on a charge of minor in possession of alcohol after someone said he was yelling at his mother.

*In the 10400 block of Takilma Road an anonymous resident complained about a neighbor's loud music.

*Daqny Carrol Shinault, 40, was cited on a charge of driving without a valid operator's permit and for driving without insurance near the intersection of Redwood Hwy. and Caves Hwy.

*In the 24000 block of Redwood Hwy. a woman said her neighbors were playing their radio's bass so loud she could not hear her TV.

Sunday, July 20

*At My Brother's Pub a man won a $5 game of pool, but the loser of the game demanded $25 from him and threatened him with a swinging pool cue. He then fled in a silver-colored car.

*In the 300 block of Hamilton Avenue Jessica Green, 25, of Cave Junction was placed under a peace officer's mental hold and transported to Three Rivers Community Hospital in Grants Pass after being uncooperative with deputies.

*At Art's Red Garter Saloon and Steak House a fight between 14 people broke out at 1:49 a.m. when some unknown people began fighting with locals. There was no damage to the bar and the offending visitors left before deputies arrived.

*A vehicle damaged a fence in the 1700 block of Laurel Road at 8:57 a.m.

*At Store Gulch a woman said she heard four gunshots from a .22 caliber gun. Deputies found the man at Store Gulch who admitted shooting. He put the gun away.

*A man said he was assaulted twice at Six Mile Campground once by his girlfriend and once by his daughter's boyfriend. Deputies filed a report for second-degree assault.

*A Toyota Celica was used by a man without the owner's permission in the 100 block of S. Kerby Avenue. The vehicle was impounded until the owner could be identified, deputies said.

*Deputies checked on a dog tied up without food and water in the 600 block of S. Junction Avenue. Deputies fixed the dog's leash and located food and water.
