

Lovejoy announces new staff

Lovejoy Hospice announced during a press conference on Thursday, July 31, the appointment of three Oregon licensed social workers to its Social Services Dept.

Jenny Clark, L.C.S.W., Joan Clark, L.C.S.W., and Youske Eto, M.S.W., joined the department, which provides social services to hospice patients and their families such as case management, grief and bereavement support, respite support and community referrals.

A memorial to past Board of Director's President, Dr. Tenison Haley, was also unveiled in the Lovejoy Hospice fountain garden during the morning event.

Haley, a counseling psychologist and member of the Oregon Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, was a Lovejoy Hospice volunteer until his death in October 2002.

He was the dean of students at Rogue Community College, and later dean emeritus, and served on the Advisory Council-Community Services for Josephine County.

He was also an active member of the National Hospice Organization and was instrumental in the development of Lovejoy Hospice services in the area community.

A permanent memorial in the form of a bronze engraved heart on natural soft gray marble reads, "our friend and fellow worker who inspired us all with his love of people and the great outdoors."

"The addition of our staff of three Oregon licensed medical social workers meets the increasing demand to reach more patients and their families," said Christina Snell, Lovejoy executive director. "Compassionate care for the social, economic, and emotional needs of our patients and families was greatly inspired by the volunteer work of Tenison Haley. The department is positioned well to carry out Dr. Haley's dreams for Lovejoy Hospice."

Borges is a 1984 graduate of Sandy Union High School of Sandy, Ore. and joined the Navy in February 1985.

The only kind of dignity which is genuine is that which is not diminished by the indifference of others.

Church News

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

Next Sunday, the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we will continue reading from John's Gospel. Jesus tells the Jews, "I am the living bread come down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

These surely are tough words to comprehend, but with faith we know Jesus spoke the truth and if we accept His teaching and take the "living bread" into our hearts, our eternal future will be happiness.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

What an invitation we are offered and what an invitation we have to offer the world!

"Christ is the bread of life. Whoever comes to Him will never be hungry, and whoever believes in Him will never be thirsty." Bread can sustain us for the moment, the day. But the bread, Jesus Christ, can sustain us for a lifetime.

This week's activities

Community Bible Church

On this communion Sunday, Aug. 3, guest speaker Fred Blackburn quoted passages from the Bible relating to rocks, water and trees. Many familiar scriptures were used comparing our Lord to the splendid creations we live with daily.

As pastor Blackburn will be on vacation for the next few weeks, concerns and questions will be handled by either the office or Ralph Casper.

Commission meeting will be Monday night. Thanks to the many who helped with the successful La Casa Yard Sale.

Coming events include the Women's Home Tour on Saturday, Aug. 9 (meet at the church at 1 p.m.) and a potluck BBQ at the Quate's home on Sunday, Aug. 24.

Courage is what it takes to stand up and speak; courage is also what it takes to sit down and listen.
