IVHS Booster Club Because of a $600 contribution from the "Class of '54 Athletic Fund" the club began the new school year "with a bang."

With the donation, the club "will be able to do more to help the deserving student-athletes at Illinois Valley High School. Because of such support from outside IVHS, we are hoping to add support for our teams and coaches from within the community.

"No money involved," said the club, "just a little time. Parents, grandparents, friends and relatives will be welcome to help."

The club meets on first Mondays at 6 p.m. in the IVHS cafeteria.

Progress on applying for nonprofit status for Illinois River Valley Arts Council (IRVAC) is moving forward, according to President Rebecca Pearson of "BeBe's ART for Everyone" in Downtown Cave Junction.

Progress also is noted regarding funding through Josephine County Coalition Planning Commission, IRVAC's representative to the Oregon Trust. Money was available for planning; implementation will occur when more funds are available. The committee is working on a "census" and direction of all cultural organizations in the county related to the arts, music and culture.

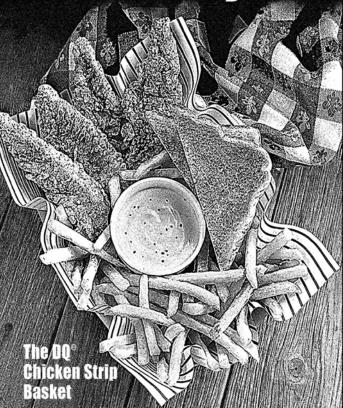

The second project for the committee is to conduct a survey as to where the priority is for spending monies that become available. Information is to be used for a long-range plan for the county. The "census" form and survey can be accessed at www.jococulturalarts.org.

Recent IRVAC discussion also has involved new participants in the Second Friday Art Walk in Downtown CJ. They are Deborah Dawson and Libby Goines, who have opened "A Creative Space" with art studios above Blue Moon Books and Coffee next to the state liquor store in CJ. Another new participant is Rising Sun's Gift Gallery, next to BeBe's.

IRVAC also noted an "Art Along the Rogue" event in Grants Pass from Friday, Oct. 3 through Sunday, Oct. 5 at GP High School.

For information about IRVAC phone 592-3949.
