Ten bucks = six years in prison for two

Two Medford teenagers, Thomas John Maya, 19, and Austin Hernandez, 17, each were sentenced last week to five years and 10 months in prison.

Jackson County Circuit Court Judge Bill Purdy imposed the minimum sentence according to Measure 11, Oregon's tough-on-crime law.

Hernandez was tried as an adult under that law. A Jackson County Circuit Court jury on Sept. 12 convicted Hernandez and Maya of one count each of second-degree robbery. Neither spoke to the court during their hearing.

Hernandez and Maya assailed Robert Stieber, of Medford, near the railroad tracks crossing Jackson Street around 12:30 a.m. on Jan. 6. Hernandez tapped Stieber's temple with a shotgun, told him to lie down or he'd kill him, and demanded his money.

The two men took Stieber's wallet -- containing about $10 -- and ran south along the tracks. Stieber was not injured.

Police quickly arrived, responding to an earlier call from a witness who said he heard a shotgun being cocked and fired shortly after seeing two young men walking in the area. One appeared to have a shotgun hidden under his sweatshirt, the witness said.

Officers arrested Hernandez and Maya about two blocks from the robbery scene.
