FLIGHT CREW -- Members of the Rogue Valley Flyers, a radio-controlled aircraft club, held a work party on Saturday, Nov. 4 at the Josephine County Skypark on Kerby Mainline Road. Glenn Fraser and Jim Donovan (left) raked soil where seed will be planted. Jamie Joswick and his father, Jim Joswick, (above) unloaded hay which will keep birds from getting to the fresh grass seed. The drought-resistant grass will provide members with a safer and cleaner path to the runway. Local companies and members have contributed nearly $12,000 to improve the park since 1999.
