Homer Simpson, while denying the vote to the 16-year-old equivalent to his daughter Lisa Simpson, solely based on age.

It seems that throughout history, white male politicians have been doing everything they can possibly think of to deny the vote to anyone but rich, white men.

Eighteen-year-olds were given the right to vote because they were fighting and dying for our country in wars.

Since they were serving their country, they were rewarded with the ballot. Seventeen-year-olds can now join the military but they still can't vote.

They should definitely be given the right to vote. By 17, most teen-agers can think for themselves, independently of their parents, and can make their own decisions about politics.

Even 16-year-olds can think for ourselves. I can, just ask my dad. Things could certainly not get worse in this country if 16-year-olds were allowed to vote.

We're mired in an illegal war because of lies about weapons of mass destruction. And now to clinch it all, we've got a jingoistic bodybuilder for governor.

If given the chance, 16-year-olds could prove that we're capable of making ballot decisions at least as sound as these.

Something must be done about this. Start speaking up and may the teen-agers prevail.

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

On Sunday, Nov. 9 we will celebrate the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. The Gospel reading will be from John, Chapter 2, which tells the story of Jesus in a temple in Jerusalem. He drove the people out, spilled the coins of the moneychangers, and overturned their tables.

He also said, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."

He was speaking about the temple of His body which would be raised from the dead three days after His death. The disciples came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken -- a sign for them and a sign for us.

Last Reminder-- Holiday Boutique, Saturday, Nov. 8, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 9, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
