The Savvy Senior By CAROL MARTIN

Charles W. Jarvis, Chairman and Chief Executive of the United Seniors Association, Inc., announced recently the USA Health Choice Freedom Campaign to stop the attempt by liberal Senators to socialize the nutritional and health industry.

"Senators like Dick Durbin, Hillary Clinton, and other liberals want a new army of health nannies controlling our choices," said Charles Jarvis. "They have mastered the art of manufacturing 'crises' so they can greatly expand the powers of Federal bureaucrats."

Senators Dick Durbin, Hillary Clinton, Dianne Feinstein, Chuck Schumer, and others are proposing legislation to create a new bureaucratic regulatory regime over the whole nutrition and health sector. Senate bill S.722, the Dietary Supplement Safety Act, would establish a new set of government regulations and programs over all health supplements.

"If Senators Durbin and Clinton get their way, American health will be harmed, not helped," said Mr. Jarvis. "Americans need expanded health choices, not reduction and bureaucracy."

The issue is controversial, however, and complex. Currently, people can pretty much buy any sort of nutritional supplement, diet aid, or vitamins from a health store. However, there's no oversight over what's actually in these products. For instance, we now know the dangers of ephedra in diet aids. Deaths have actually been attributed to it.

As for vitamins, taking too many can be toxic. In general, people who are vitamin aficionados don't know what they're doing when they dose themselves. They think vitamins couldn't possibly be bad for them. They are sorely mistaken.

No, I don't agree with a nationalized health care system. However, regulating what health food stores sell is beneficial to everyone.

CJ allocated $769 from liquor tax

During September, the Oregon Liquor Control Commission allocated $365,629 in liquor revenue to Josephine, Douglas, Jackson and Lane counties and their 37 incorporated cities.

Statewide the agency distributed $7.15 million for the month, including $3.7 million to the general fund. Oregon's 239 incorporated cities received $1.3 million, the 35 counties netted $653,530, and the city revenue sharing account was $914,942. Last month's statewide allocation was $11.6 million.

OLCC revenue is derived from the sale of distilled spirits in 239 liquor stores, taxes on malt beverages and wine, license fees and fines for liquor law violations. The distribution is based on population.

In September, Josephine County received $14,480. Cave Junction received $769 and Grants Pass received $13,254.
