n't take off and hit a fence like that," Jim said. "The horse never goes over there (near the ravine)

Despite the loss of his family's friendly pet, Jim said he was proud of the way the community responded to his distraught '911' phone call.

"To see the community pull together in such a short amount of time and see fire dept. and police dept. members leave with tears in their eyes was real touching," Jim said.

The Valentines had purchased Yahtahay for $600 but he had a superb bloodline, they said. Yahtahay was related to "Dash For Cash," a well-known champion quarter horse from the 1970s.

"As a gelding he could have been a good cutting and gaming horse," he added. "He was really short-legged and super fast."

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

On Nov. 16 we will celebrate the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, and our Gospel Reading will be from Mark, Chapter 13.

Jesus tells his disciples, "Heaven and Earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But of the day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

We will soon be in the Season of the Advent, preparing for Christmas, a good time to reflect on how the words of Jesus have influenced or maybe even changed our lives during the past year.

The only thing better than singing is more singing.
