This Takilma house was destroyed by a fire Saturday, Dec. 6 that was likely started by a wire for a doghouse light.

Light for doghouse sparks Takilma fire; pets spared

Six emergency vehicles and 13 firefighters saved a guesthouse and a hot tub, but a Takilma home that was fully involved in flames, when the alarm came in, was gutted. The alarm was sounded on Saturday, Dec. 6 at 8:36 a.m.

The estimated loss of the contents and the wood home, which contained approximately 728 square feet of space, was placed at $65,000 to $70,000 by Joe

Feldhaus, Illinois Valley Fire District division chief and incident commander at the blaze at 9535 Takilma

Co-owners of the property, Charles Greninger and Patricia Regis, were at work when the fire first was seen, said Feldhaus. Neighbors apparently made sure that the couple's
