

New Blue Moon Café co-owners, Judy McGovern and Tina Brick

Blue Moon Café offers new menu

By MICHELLE BINKER Staff Writer

Tina Brick considers herself an "accidental café owner."

"I would have never imagined myself here. But when I heard the previous owner was moving on and considering closing the doors, well, I just couldn't see that happening." Brick Brick and co-owner Judy McGovern set to work. They drafted a business plan, attracted an investor, and refocused the café's emphasis on excellent food and a comfortable atmosphere.

"We've changed the menu considerably, offering fresh soups made from scratch and excellent sandwiches," Brick said. Vegetarians will find plenty of

The café also features fresh, signature-recipe baked goods, cakes, muffins, and cookies, made with the best organic and all natural ingredients; organic coffee and specialty coffee drinks; and teas. Orders can be placed to go.

McGovern and Brick are both involved in creating scrumptious menu items. "We're a good team," McGovern says, smiling. "We compliment each other."

Blue Moon will still have some books, and the light, spacious interior is a good location for showing local art.

"We plan to host an artist every month. Currently we have Debbie paintings on Dawson's display through March," said Brick. "We're trying to showcase as many artists and local crafts as possible."

The café will also participate in the Art Walk festivities when the season commences.

Blue Moon is located at 119 S. Redwood Hwy. and is open Mondays through Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
