
FIRE SAFETY ACHIEVERS - Illinois Valley Volunteer Firefighters De Spellman and Many Smiles presented 'Certificates of Completion' and badges for emergency and fire safety awareness to Dome School students. As part of an emergency awareness program available to all schools, the children designed evacuation plans for their homes and with their parents signed seatbelt contracts. CLAY RATTLE PROJECT

Creating your own art object from clay, learning traditional Native American ways, and writing and performing your own myth about How Nature created this beautiful valley we live in.

*The Learning Through Art Committee of the Illinois River Valley Arts Council is accepting applications from middle and high school students for the Spring 2004 Clay Rattle Project. Applications are available at Cone Ten Pottery, BeBe's Art For Everyone, Lorna Byrne Middle and IVHS School offices, The Boys & Girls Club and the Family Resource Center. Application deadline is Thursday, March 4 and should be returned to BeBe's Art For Everyone in Downtown Cave Junction. The project will begin on Sunday, March 7 at Cone Ten Pottery and continue every Sunday until the April Art Walk. Participants will work with artist Stephanie Friedman of Cone Ten Pottery and George Fence, Native American storyteller. Students will incorporate their rattles into their written myth during a live performance at the April Art Walk. For more information: Joyce Abrams at 592-6078 or Kathy Ratiu-Kelley at 597-2155.
