*The mother of a girl, 10, said her daughter had been injured by a man at a residence on Lakeshore Drive. A deputy said it was unfounded as a crime.

Monday, Feb. 23

*In the 300 block of E. River Street, a woman said she saw a man standing behind her apartment smoking a cigarette 1:43 a.m. The man took off running when her husband opened the window. The responding officer was unable to locate the individual, but no crime had been committed.

*A Hogue Drive mom said she was assaulted by her daughter, 13.

*Because a family member keeps breaking into her house on Lister Street while she's at work, extra patrol was requested.

*A woman who had been assaulted earlier was transported to TRCH at 12:02 p.m.

*Because she had not contacted anyone since she left to go mushroom picking, a woman on Deer Creek Road was reported missing. However, she was soon contacted, and there was no problem.

POUNDING HEADACHE? GO WITH CHIROPRACTIC

Perhaps you have put in a long day at work and your head is beginning to ache. Or maybe you forgot to eat lunch and are starting to feel lightheaded. You better listen to these alarms. No one wants a full-blown headache.

Unfortunately, some people regularly get headaches. Chiropractic treatment may be the answer. A 2001 report by researchers at the Duke University Evidence-Based Practice Center in Durham, North Carolina, found that spinal manipulation resulted in almost immediate improvement for headaches that originate in the neck. They also saw significantly fewer side effects and longer lasting relief of tension-type headaches than when taking a commonly prescribed medication.

Cervical spinal manipulation was associated with improvement in outcomes in two trials involving patients with neck pain and headaches. Manipulation appeared to result in immediate improvement in severity when used to treat episodes of cervicogenic headaches. If you suffer from frequent headaches, make an appointment with a local Doctor of Chiropractic. Why have pain needlessly?
