LBMS students gain honor society

The National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) inducted new members at Lorna Byrne Middle School (LBMS) on Monday night, March 16.

NJHS was established in 1929 to recognize outstanding students in junior high and middle schools. The LBMS chapter was granted its charter on May 24, 1976.

Students were selected by the faculty for demonstrated ability in service, scholarship, leadership, citizenship and character.

Illinois Valley High School student Jenna Lorensen addressed the Junior inductees with an inspirational speech.

LBMS student Sara

Austin sang, "The Star Spangled Banner," to the delight of the large crowd gathered in the gym.

Cash scam warning by RCC given

Rogue Community College received a report recently that one or more persons have been going door-to-door in Jackson County soliciting donations for an "RCC cash contest."

"Rogue Community College is not conducting a door-to-door survey, contest, or campaign of any kind," said Margaret Bradford, director of Marketing and Community Relations. "If someone comes to the door selling anything or soliciting donations, please call the Medford Police Department."
