

MODEL AIRPLANE SQUADRON - Members of Rogue Valley Flyers were at the Sky Park off Kerby Mainline Road recently with their radio-controlled model aircraft. The group plans a number of other public events this year for Illinois Valley. Watch 'Illinois Valley News' for announcements about these special activities.

Tales from the Police Blotter

*Several drivers were warned for various infractions such as speeding, improper display, obstructed license plate, defective brake lights, parking in handicapped spaces, and failure to yield to pedestrians in the crosswalk.

*Contacted for the third time this day, Robert J. Myers, 33, was charged with third-degree theft after a witness said he took an ice cream cake from Dairy Queen at 6:16 p.m.

*Three horses on the side of Redwood Hwy. near the top of Hay's Hill were corralled by a passerby at 7:12 p.m.

*A man said power tools and rigging were stolen from the back of his pickup truck while parked at the Junction Inn.

*A person in a rented room said a woman next door was bleeding from having been beaten up. She was transported to Three Rivers Community Hospital (TRCH).

*A man on Lakeshore Drive said at 8:32 p.m. that another person had borrowed his car with permission, but failed to return it in a timely manner.

Friday, April 2

*A highly intoxicated man was found sitting in his vehicle in the 1000 block of Caves Hwy. at 2:27 a.m. When stopped on Holland Loop at Takilma Road at 3:30 a.m., Clark Edward Turnbull, 44, was arrested and charged with DUII and misdemeanor DWS; warned for failure to maintain a lane, speeding, and driving uninsured. His vehicle was impounded.

*A woman on Rail Lane said at 6:55 a.m. that a vehicle had been stolen from her residence. The vehicle was soon recovered at Hanby Lane with no damage, but a come-along and a steam table with a combined reported value of $325 were missing.

*A counterfeit traveler's check was reported at Shop Smart at 8:22 a.m.

*Some $1,190 worth of items including chainsaws and a bicycle were reported stolen from a garage on Tracy Lane.

*A transient was said to be sleeping in bushes near a business in the 200 block of Caves Hwy. at 9 a.m. He was gone when a deputy responded later.

*A $500 mountain bike was reported stolen from the back porch of a residence on S. Old Stage Road at 9:26 a.m.

*A teen-aged male hitch-hiker getting into a pickup truck with "very dark-tinted windows" concerned a woman who called from Selma Select Market at 9 a.m. to say so.

*Witnesses said a man, upset that his 17-year-old son was visiting the boy's girlfriend on Hogue Drive, assaulted his son during a "protracted" incident. When the man was contacted, his story and that of his son did not coincide with that of witnesses. The boy did not appear injured.

*A man on Burch Drive said five CDs and tools valued at $150 had been stolen from two unlocked vehicles.

*A woman said she was hit in the face by a man on the parking lot of a business in CJ at 2:48 p.m.

*Second-degree theft and theft of services were reported after a woman said her daughter's $100 cell phone had been stolen at Illinois Valley High School at 3:43 p.m.

*A driver was warned for failure to obey a traffic control device (FTO/TCD) on Waldo Road at Takilma Road at 7:35 p.m.

*On W. Stevenson Street at 6:06 p.m., a man said he had an injured crow in his backyard. The crow was brought to the I.V. Substation, where it was made comfortable in a box for delivery to Wildlife Images.

*Two drivers were warned to replace license plate lights in the area of Takilma Road area around 8:15 p.m.

*Police "caution tape" strung across two lanes of Redwood Hwy. south of O'Brien nearly caused an accident, a woman said at 8:16 p.m. Nothing was found when the area was checked.

*A speeding car on Redwood Hwy. at milepost

36 eluded an officer by turning off into the woods at 9:17 p.m.

*Some five frantic horses, shooed from Takilma Road near Dick George Road, skittered around on a porch and trampled the landscaping of a nearby bed and breakfast until some folks came to retrieve them.

*The brake lines on a car parked in the 300 block of S. Redwood Hwy. were cut, a woman said at 11:55 p.m. She suspected an ex-boyfriend who had been seen in the vicinity earlier.

Saturday, April 3

*Donald David Bernald, 43, was cited to appear on a charge of misdemeanor DWS, warned for failure to signal, and his vehicle impounded following a traffic stop in the 27000 block of Redwood Hwy. at 1:14 a.m.

*Leslie C. McCombs, 51, was cited and released on a charge of DUII on Redwood Hwy. at Pine-wood Way at 1:53 a.m. She was also warned for failure to maintain a lane and failure to carry insurance. Her vehicle was towed.

*On S. Kerby Avenue at 11:39 a.m., a person said a skateboard, which had been taken from the yard and its appearance altered, had been returned, but the wheels were missing. A deputy advised the person to work it out with the parents of the boy who took it.

*Other than an unsecured door, no reason was given for a business alarm in the 500 block of S. Redwood Hwy. at 2:47 p.m.
