Questions and Answers by Christina Snell Executive Director at Lovejoy Hospice

In order to help you become better informed about hospice services, Lovejoy Hospice is publishing this question and answer column every month. Look for us on the fourth Wednesday of every month in 'Illinois Valley News.' If you have questions you would like answered in this column, phone or Email us at the numbers below.

Question: "Will my doctor still be involved in my care if I choose hospice?"

Answer: Yes. The hospice team works with the doctor to develop your specialized plan of care. Your doctor has medical expertise and also a history of providing your medical care. The hospice nurses have specialized knowledge in pain and symptom management that they offer the physician in the planning of your care. All medical decisions are made by your doctor. He/She take into account the information the nurse communicates to them on a regular basis.

Church News

St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter, we will read about Jesus portrayed as the Good Shepherd in John's Gospel, "My sheep hear my voice, I know them, and they follow me."

We will also read a selection from Revelations regarding a vision of a great multitude, including, "They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands."

Immanuel United Methodist Church

"Pastor David" will teach from John, chapter 10:22-30, wherein Jesus tells how he is like a shepherd and how the sheep know his voice.

There also will be a tale about an Eastern Oregon shepherd and his flock. Sunday School is at 8 a.m. followed by service at 9:15 a.m.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Sharing a meal with others. Stories of Jesus sharing a meal with others are numerous, but this week's lesson has to do with a meal Jesus shared with some of his disciples after telling them where to catch fish.

In this last story, Jesus makes it clear to Peter that his intention is for Peter to be a fisher of men, to bring the word of God to people. Activities: Wednesday, April 28, 6 p.m. - potluck; 6:45 p.m. - Bible Study; Sunday, May 2, 9 a.m. - worship; 10:15 a.m. - Sunday School.

Don't take me away from my home

If you see a baby bird on the ground, put it back in the nest or on a nearby branch. Babies taken from their mothers almost always die. If you love baby wildlife, leave them alone.
