Free Search and Rescue Academy set

Anyone at least 14, even without prior experience, can sign up for the Josephine County Sheriff's Patrol Search & Rescue Unit's fourth, free "Citizens Academy."

With room for 40 students, the academy is scheduled for two consecutive weekends, beginning June 5 and 6, concluding June 12 and 13. The academy will be held at Rogue Community College's Redwood Campus from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The curriculum "will provide a thorough introduction to search and rescue, meeting the state's minimum training requirements."

The SAR academy will cover map and compass, global positioning systems, man-tracking, radio communications, search techniques, first aid/CPR, cold-weather emergencies, helicopter safety, crime-scene preservation and a variety of other subjects.

The academy is open to all citizens and is offered at no cost. Students must be at least 14, with no maximum age, and no prior experience required.

Academy graduates will qualify for membership in the Josephine County Search and Rescue Reserves. Reservists are activated for large-scale searches, supplementing active-duty SAR personnel. The reserve program is a recent addition to the Josephine County SAR Unit. Current plans call for a target reserve pool of 100 members, with estimates of six to 10 activations annually.

Academy graduates wishing to be considered for active duty SAR membership may apply at the conclusion of the course. The application process includes a background check and an interview process.

For those accepted, there is a trial service period, additional required training, and minimum attendance requirements.

Active-duty SAR members also receive training on a variety of snow craft, watercraft, and several types of specialized off-road vehicles. Advanced training is available for qualified members wishing to participate in rope and wilderness rescue, in conjunction with American Medical Response's Reach and Treat (RAT) team.

There are also specialty subunits of SAR, including a K-9 search team, a Swiftwater rescue team, a dive rescue team, and an urban SAR team, trained for structural collapse rescue. SAR also sponsors a youth Search and Rescue Explorers Post, for those 14-20.

SAR is an all-volunteer unit, funded entirely through community donations and grants. It is the primary search agency for the county, and actively participates in a variety of rescues and large-scale emergencies, as well as numerous community events.

For more information or to register for the academy, contact Deputy Sara Nicholson, Josephine County Emergency Manager/Search & Rescue Coordinator, (541) 474-5300.

Lovejoy offers end-of-life care

The Lovejoy Hospice program provides holistic end-of-life care for people and their families in Josephine County, and parts of Jackson and Douglas counties.

Lovejoy Hospice provides professional staff 24 hours a day "to help retain dignity and personal choices while relieving physical and emotional pain."

Added the organization, "We also provide support services to families as they care for loved ones, and present community education programs for health-care professionals and the public. The Bereavement Program is available to anyone in the community despite the type of death."
