Ten minutes with ...

...Marion Olevia Empson, "The Ornament Lady," who makes decorations from old Christmas cards and gives them away.

Where are you from?

Brea, Calif.; down in Orange County. I was born in 1916. I moved here almost 30 years ago when my husband retired after 50 years of working as a newspaper pressman. He worked at the "Times," the "Examiner," pretty much all the papers.

How did you end up in Cave Junction?

Well, my husband wanted to come up here because his sister lived here. I'm a California girl. All my life I lived there until I came up here. Summer is my favorite season because it reminds me of where I was born. In California, we had summer almost all the time. Up here, you have the rain and the snow and all that; it doesn't go for me.

Where did you used to work?

Well, I never really had to work; my husband didn't want me to, and he had a good job. I only worked because I wanted to. I worked in a dress shop and Benny's hot dog stand in California. I only worked for him once in a while when he wanted a day off.

People talk of the ornaments you make for Christmas, how did that begin?

It started a long time ago in California when someone gave me an ornament. I liked it so much, I started making them. Now, people come all the time and leave old Christmas cards on my porch, or I get them in the mail. I've been doing it for more than 30 years now. I don't sell them; I just give them away to anybody who wants them. I guess I needed something to do; I just can't sit here doing nothing. One of my ornaments was on an Oregon tree that was sent to the White House.

Been married long?

Fifty years before my husband passed away. I was 18 when we married. His folks lived next to me. He came home to stay a while and that's when I met him. The first time I met him, I was out in the street with the other kids playing baseball. I had to teach him how to play. He didn't know how to throw a ball or anything else. I played it all my life, even after I got married. We had two boys who also work as pressmen.

Are you a sports fan?

I bowled for about 50 years in a league. I did everything. My husband started long before I did. I started bowling with him and his brother. I got better and better until finally my brother-in-law quit. When my husband asked him why, he said that women aren't supposed to be in a league. After moving here, I bowled for a Cave Junction team. I bowled in many different leagues. I had a 300 once in a league. I got all kinds of gifts and trophies. I like pretty much any sport. I like football, but I don't get into it like a lot of people do, I just watch it to see what they're doing. The Rams are my favorite team; that's where I'm from. The Angels are my favorite baseball team, down in Anaheim.

What is your favorite flavor ice cream?

Vanilla with chocolate covering it. I like the fudge. I'm not a dark chocolate person. ~Interview and Photo by Shane Welsh
