Iron Horse Rodeo plans Lake Selmac roar again in 2005

By CRYSTALSCHROETER Correspondent

The roar of more than 2,000 Harley Davidson motorcycles rang through the valley Friday through Sunday, June 18-20 with the coming of the Iron Horse Rodeo.

"Twelve years and we love coming back to Lake Selmac and Illinois Valley," said event organizer Earl Holmes, of Merlin.

The Iron Horse Rodeo was started 12 years ago with a few campsites, a couple of bikes, and a dream of a biker rally in Southern Oregon.

"With such great attendance we bring much-needed attention and money to the valley and the park," said Holmes. The rodeo attracts bikers from throughout the Pacific Northwest. Many travel thousands of miles to attend.

Holmes and his wife, Patty, noted that Iron Horse Rodeo supports the valley with a number of different programs. Toy runs throughout the year, a pride ride for the Vietnam memorial, and adopting families around the holiday season. Those efforts will continue.

Iron Horse Rodeo is looking forward to "another great 12 years." Holmes and the Josephine County Parks Dept. continue to work together for the rally, said Holmes.

I.V. Little League season to close Saturday

Illinois Valley Little League will wrap up its 2004 season with closing-day ceremonies Saturday, June 26 at 2 p.m. in Jubilee Park.

Players will receive their trophies and participation certificates.

"We've had a great season," said Sonny

Moore, league president, "and the kids had a lot of fun."

Following ceremonies, I.V. Little League will hold its annual general meeting at the Jubilee Park pavilion. It's anticipated that the meeting will start at 3:30 p.m., depending on the closing ceremonies.

Illinois Valley will host the Little League Junior All-Stars Tournament, which will be held the weekend of July 10-11.

During the five-game series, 13- and 14-year-old players from the Southern Oregon District will vie for the opportunity to compete in the state championships.
