Big variety available at Video Exp.

By SHANE WELSH
Staff Writer
Video Explorer has ventured to a new location -- the former I.V. Community Response Team office, 200 W. Lister St., adjacent to New Life Natural Foods.

Steve Lanusse-Siegel, owner, moved his store from the former location to offer the same wide variety of independent, foreign, and popular film selections "for the entire family."

The store carries an eclectic variety of films on VHS and DVD ranging from children's videos, documentaries, and politics, to Native American, Asian, and Indian cultural and historical films. Lanusse-Siegel also has a hand-picked selection of new releases and a special "Steve's favorites" section.

"I love movies," he said. "But I like more thought-provoking, nurturing, and non-violent films. Independent films feature more reality and beautiful scenery than action films. I also have a lot of musical performances and spiritual titles to choose from."

He gets new titles in every week, including many popular releases. There is a small five-day rental fee for children's films; and competitive prices for all other VHS and DVD movies. There are also new T-shirts and used-music CDs available.

Video Explorer is open from noon to 8 p.m. Mondays to Saturdays.

Rattlesnakes afoot in valley

People should be aware that warming weather has brought out some of the area's most dangerous critters - rattlesnakes.

A number of valleyites have reported seeing or killing the reptiles, a few in very close proximity to homes in O'Brien and in the Althouse Creek - Holland Loop vicinity.

Greenpeace gets booted

A citation was issued to Greenpeace for illegal occupancy of public lands by Medford District Bureau of Land Management (BLM) law enforcement on Sunday, June 27.

Greenpeace moved onto BLM land 5 miles west of Glendale during Memorial Day weekend. BLM issued a temporary letter of authorization to allow the group to stay on public land past the 14-day limit while its application was being considered.

On Tuesday, June 15,

BLM revoked the temporary letter of authorization and requested Greenpeace leave within 48 hours.

According to BLM, Greenpeace did not begin packing to leave the site until Sunday, June 27.

Greenpeace will be required to appear before a judge, who will assess the fines and costs incurred as a result of BLM responding to this activity.

Greenpeace must have an authorized special recreation permit before returning to the public land.
