Anderson appointed undersheriff for JoCo

Lt. Brian Anderson of the Josephine County Sheriff's Office began his position as undersheriff on Thursday, July 1 to assist Sheriff Dave Daniel.

During his 2002 re-election campaign, Daniel announced he would re-establish the position.

The sheriff's office hasn't had an undersheriff since 1998. When Daniel was elected sheriff, he felt he could take care of daily operations and public relations without the aid of an undersheriff. According to Anderson, Daniel decided he needed more time to deal with political and community issues.

Anderson, with 19 years service, will be in charge of daily operations. He has worked as a police dog handler for seven years, and was a corporal four years before being promoted to sergeant in 1997. Later in '97, he was promoted to lieutenant.

"It's going to be a challenge," Anderson said. "(But) I've worked in all facets of the sheriff's of-

Bidding farewell to Common Sense

Today we mourn the passing of a beloved and old friend, with us for many years, by the name of Common Sense.

He'll be remembered for such things as knowing to come in out of the rain; that the early bird gets the work; and that life isn't always fair.

He lived by simple rules (don't spend more than you earn); and sound parenting strategies (adults are in charge, not kids).

His health began to deteriorate when bureaucratic red tape and overbearing regulations began to take over.

Suddenly, 6-year-old boys began to be charged with sexual harassment for kissing classmates.

Teens were suspended from school for using mouthwash after lunch, and teachers fired for reminding unruly students.

Common Sense's condition worsened as criminals began to receive better treatment and more rights than their victims.

When schools were required to get parental consent to administer aspirin to a student, while the same schools were forbidden from informing parents when a pregnant student wanted to have an abortion, Common Sense lost the will to live.

He finally gave up the ghost after a woman, not realizing that steaming coffee is hot, was awarded a huge payment for spilling it in her lap.

Common Sense was preceded in death by his parents: Truth and Responsibility; his children, Discretion and Trust; and his wife, Reason.
