Singer Navarro aiming high July 21

By CHRISTINA HILL Correspondent

Nicole Navarro, a 17year-old valley resident, is no stranger to the spotlight.

Navarro is an up-andcoming singer with big plans for her future. During the next few weeks, she will be heard belting out her heart at various events across Southwestern Oregon.

Navarro recently competed on Radio Station KRWQ's Colgate Country Showdown. She recorded a song that the station played and listeners voted on.

She and 15 other finalists will be the opening act for Darryl Worley, a renowned Country singer, at the Jackson County Fair on Wednesday July 21 starting at 4 p.m. The winner will receive $1,000 and the chance to advance to the next level of competition, which is state.

This little girl with a big voice also can be spotted performing with "Sequoia," an Illinois Valley group, on July 31 at the first Siskiyou Bluegrass Festival at Lake Selmac. The festival will be held from 11 a.m. until 10 p.m.

Nicole's parents, Angel and Debi, couldn't be more proud of her.

plishing that dream and that's why I'm so proud of her," said her father. "I'm getting to the point now where I go somewhere and when I introduce myself to someone, they'll ask me, 'Hey isn't your daughter, that singer?' It sort of brings tears to my eyes every time I hear her sing," Angel said.

Nicole's talent sort of runs in the family, her parents said.

"Her grandfather and great-grandfather were involved with music their whole lives and her grandmother has written hundreds and hundreds of songs," said her mom. "Now Nicole has tapped in song-writing, and I think that she got that from her grandmother.

"But as far as singing goes, God gave her that talent," she said.

Besides fairs and festivals, Nicole's God-given voice also can be heard on a CD that she guest-starred on. It will be released in Europe in a few months.

"She performed a duet with Michael Jarrett on his CD, 'Silk on Satin," said her mom. "She also did background vocals. Right now the CD is on its way down to the Neil Diamond Studio for finalization, and Von Price will be playing the saxophone to go along with the music. Michael Jarrett is a very successful song-writer, and he's kind of taken Nicole under his wing," her mom said.

Nicole's future certainly looks bright. According to Angel, he has already had two people approach him and ask if they can be Nicole's manager. Currently, Nicole doesn't have one. In the meantime, she wants to continue singing and graduate from Illinois Valley High School. After graduating, Nicole plans on attending a college, where she looks forward to getting her degree in business.

"She knows what she wants to go for, but she also has her priorities straight and wants to get an education," Angel concluded.

Lovejoy gets grant to aid with laptops

Lovejoy Hospice is the recipient of a $2,500 grant from The Carpenter Foundation, announced by Jane H. Carpenter, president, on June 24.

The grant will help Lovejoy Hospice complete a field staff technology project that will provide nurses and social workers with the use of lap-top computers while working with patients.

Lovejoy programs provide holistic end-of-life care for people and their families in Josephine County, and parts of Jackson and Douglas counties. The hospice provides professional staff 24 hours a day to help keep dignity and personal choices while relieving physical and emotional pain.

"The Carpenter Foundation grant gives Lovejoy Hospice the opportunity to provide lap-top computers, programming, and specialized software for patient care," said Christina Snell, executive director. "The lap-top computers will greatly enhance the availability for needed hospice services in the homes of Lovejoy Hospice patients in our community."
