(Editor's Note: Factual information for 'Blotter' is provided by official law enforcement agencies. All persons listed are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Charges can be amended or dismissed.)

Saturday, June 19

*Unknown jerks (except to God) caused approximately $700 damage to the Illinois Valley High School greenhouse, a teacher said. Holes were torn in plastic sheeting and nearly 100 tomato starts were destroyed.

*Rude and reckless people in pickup trucks were speeding up and down the bed of Deer Creek, nearly hitting a child and causing disruptions for several neighbors in the vicinity at 5:14 p.m.

*Because two unattended juveniles were throwing 2foot diameter rocks onto his car from a cliff nearby, a man at the green bridge on Eight Dollar Mountain Road fired a pistol loaded with snake shot "close to them" to scare them. The kids yelled, "We're minors. You can't shoot us. We're going to kill you." Their parents were likewise "murderously threatening." The man wanted the incident logged.

*A witness said that several young people tried to pull hoses off the pumps at Selma Texaco at 9:43 p.m. The youths then settled for stealing ice from the freezer and headed for Grants Pass.

Sunday, June 20

*Paddle boats were taken without permission from Lake Selmac Resort, but later returned.

*Travis Liles, 21, was cited on a charge of failure to register a vehicle and warned for expired tags and no insurance on Illinois River Road.

*A deputy contacted a man who had been chasing butterflies and running in and out of traffic in Downtown CJ around 1:30 p.m.

*Chelsea N. Wood, 18, was cited on a charge of failure to wear a seatbelt on Illinois River Road near Store Gulch at 2:45 p.m.

*Patrick H. Hermes, 18, was cited on a charge of minor in possession of alcohol at Store Gulch.

*Although a man insisted he took a woman's wallet to prevent her drinking and driving, he also took $160 from her, which provoked an altercation, reported at 8 p.m. They were separated.

*A small blue vehicle with California plates, moving at "100 mph or faster," was seen on Redwood Hwy. near O'Brien Road at 9:53 p.m.

Monday, June 21

*The caretaker at Laurel Cemetery thought he saw people and heard voices at 12:53 a.m., but it was a false alarm.

*At a logging site on Little Grayback Road, someone had used a log loader to destroy a fuel truck, dumping nearly 100 gallons of fuel, and causing approximately $5,000 dollars in reported damages as well as stealing a CB radio and RV battery, a logging company employee said at 5:14 a.m.
