City joins intergovernmental waste agency

By MICHELLE BINKER
Staff Writer

Cave Junction city councilmen were talking trash during their meeting on Monday night, Aug. 9 in city hall.

Councilmen voted 5-0 to join Josephine County and the city of Grants Pass as a partner in an Intergovernmental Solid Waste Agency, and approved a solid-waste franchise agreement with Southern Oregon Sanitation Inc.

SOS customers likely will see a rate increase of one dollar or so in the coming months, said Jim Polk, Cave Junction city recorder.

The city anticipates making almost $10,000 per year in franchise fees from the agreement, which allows the city to collect fees for collection service.

As a partner in the solid waste agency, the city will have a voice on the board, which provides oversight, administration, regulation and allocation of solid waste collection resources.

Next Bluegrass Fest planned as two-day event

Because of the success of the inaugural Siskiyou Bluegrass Festival on July 31, sponsored by Illinois Valley Chamber of Commerce, the plan is to extend the second annual event to two days.

Chamber directors agreed to that plan during their meeting on Tuesday, Aug. 10 at Wild River Brewing & Pizza Co.

Festival Chairman

Pam Cooper said that nearly 500 people attended.

Next year's event also will be at Lake Selmac, but in a larger area. Cooper was lauded for her work.
