*In CJ, when a deputy tried to contact the driver of a vehicle that had been clocked at high speed, the driver fled on foot and wasn't located.

Wednesday, Sept. 22

*Theft of a purse from a shopping cart in Selma was reported.

*An abandoned vehicle at the rear of the CJ Post Office was to be impounded.

*The possibility of an intoxicated bicyclist in O'Brien, who began pushing his bike, was checked.

*In Kerby, Caramia R. Marinelli, 35, was cited to appear on an original charge of FTA in connection with a DUII charge.

*After a complaint that one driver was chasing another on Taurus Lane, Levi N. Gruys, 32, was cited on a charge of not having an operator's license, and warned for not having liability insurance.

*Because a boy, 15, left home without permission on his bicycle on Old Stage Road, his mother listed him as a runaway.

*People keep firing shotguns between 10 p.m. and midnight in the 2000 block of Crooks Creek Road, a complainant said.

*A boy who left home returned, but his mother was worried because he said that he was going to beat a teacher. The threat was called unfounded as a crime, and the school was to help deal with the boy.

*Trespassing problems were reported in the 2000 block of Deer Creek Road.

*A complaint of harassment came from a CJ business owner, who said it involves a woman whose ex-boyfriend is living with the complainant's husband.

Thursday, Sept. 23

*Animal Control was to be notified of an anonymous complaint that pets belonging to people in rural CJ were not taken care of because the people were hospitalized.

*"Personal garbage" related to prescription drug use was found in a rubbish can at "Forks" State Park.

*On Deer Creek Road, a housekeeper set off a residential alarm.

*After more concern about pets left alone because their owners were in a hospital, it was found that a daughter had been taking care of the pets.

Friday, Sept. 24

*Folks on Schumacher Avenue had some sort of disturbance after drinking alcoholic beverages at 12:24 a.m..

*"An unknown problem" involving an Onstar alarm in a vehicle in Selma apparently was unresolved at 10:09 a.m.

*Two women had a disturbance in Kerby. One wanted the other "trespassed," and was told she needed to prove that she wasn't a resident. She also was told to check into a restraining order.

*After his phone lines were cut and his residence damaged on Ollis Road, a man was quoted as saying that he'd shoot everyone in the neighborhood.

*Three boys took her fanny pack in CJ, said a woman, adding that it contained ID and medicine.

*At the request of a deputy in California's Sonoma County, a welfare check was conducted at an O'Brien home, and the person in question was OK. The complainant was advised of this.

*The city of CJ was notified about a large amount of water coming from the water filtration plant at 5:32 p.m.

*Two people on Cascade Drive were warned about telephonic harassment and trespassing, apparently in connection with complaints about dogs.
