St. Patrick of the Forest Catholic Church
On the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we will read from Sirach, 2 Timothy, and Luke's Gospel, and all three have a theme related to justice.
God, the Most High, is the ultimate, just judge who will determine our eternal destination. Luke says that humility will weigh heavily when the last judgment comes.

Phone Home, It's Me - God!
It is never too late to turn your life around and come to Me. Even if you're living a life of sin, if you ask for forgiveness and amend your ways, you will enjoy My mercy.
Much is said among you about deathbed conversions. However, even these are acceptable to Me. Such is the nature of mercy. There is no timeline, no probation period. There is only love and acceptance.
Do not despair if your life has been one of vice and self-gratification. You can change if you choose to walk in the way of the Lord. I am always waiting with an open heart and open arms.
Jesus knew this well when He was crucified between two thieves. The one who asked for forgiveness for his life's ways was told that he would enter the kingdom of heaven that day. The thief who mocked Jesus, even as he breathed his last, received no such promise. He was unrepentant to the last.
